

Description

The Proway PWH-80551 is a work glove from the Touch Series. The Touch Series meets the highest quality standards in the industry. The PWH-80551 has a 13G seamless knitted liner made of Nylon. A liner made of nylon is elastic, abrasion-resistant, lightweight and offers good dexterity. The PWH-80551 features a PU palm coating. A PU coating is flexible and offers good protection against abrasion. This coating contains no latex which reduces the risk of allergic reactions and has high breathability. Choose the Proway PWH-80551 and experience the ultimate combination of protection, comfort and performance.
